WELLINGTON CROQUET ASSOCIATION (INCORPORATED)

RULES

1. The Association shall be called the Wellington Croquet Association Incorporated.
2. The Association shall consist of the Croquet clubs originally forming the Wellington Croquet Association, and any other such clubs as may be admitted in accordance with these Rules. For the purpose of these Rules, the Croquet section of a club which combines other games with Croquet may be regarded as a Croquet club.

Objects and Powers

3. The objects and powers of the Association shall be:
 - (a) Objects: To foster and manage the game of Croquet as defined by Croquet New Zealand in the area in which its constituent clubs operate.
 - (b) Powers:
 - (i) To take such part in the arrangement, management and control of interclub, association and national matches and tournaments as circumstances require and the Association thinks fit.
 - (ii) To affiliate and co-operate with Croquet New Zealand and any other association to its advantage.
 - (iii) To consider and settle disputes between affiliated clubs, between players in tournaments and matches wholly or partly under the control of the Association, between players and clubs and between players or clubs and officers of the Association.

Qualifications for Membership

4. To be eligible for affiliation a club must have a minimum of eight members, or such lesser number as may be fixed by the Association, and the right to use a croquet court. Where croquet is only a section of a club, only those members shall count, for the purposes of the Association, as are identified with the croquet section of the club.
5. The Association may make it a condition of eligibility that the club has a constitution consistent with the constitution of CNZ and this Association.
A duly eligible club may apply in writing for membership of the Association and shall become affiliated on the nomination of any club or of a member of the Executive, supported by a majority of the votes recorded at a general meeting of the Association.
6. Any member of a club desiring to transfer to another club, shall first be required to produce to that other club a financial clearance from the secretary of the former club.
- 7a. Any affiliated club may, by written notice to the secretary of the Association, tender its resignation from the Association but may, on application, be reinstated in accordance with clause 5
- 7b. Any affiliated club which at 31 March in any year is in arrears with its levies shall lose its voting rights at Association meetings and such other benefits of membership as the Executive Committee may decide until such time as its arrears is paid in full.

Management

8. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by the Executive Committee of the Association.
9. Any matters arising between the meetings of the Association shall be dealt with by the Executive Committee which shall comprise the Officers, the Immediate Past President who shall remain a member of the Executive for twelve months after ceasing to be President, and such other members as may be elected at a general meeting or appointed by the Executive Committee.
10. The Executive Committee may delegate to any person or persons, club or clubs, any matters concerning Executive management, tournament/match control, coaching and/or publicity.
11. The Executive Committee may engage person(s) on such terms and with such powers as it thinks desirable, subject to approval by a General Meeting of the Association.

Officers

12. The Officers of the Association shall be the President, Secretary, Treasurer, Tournament Co-ordinator and, at the discretion of the Executive Committee, the webmaster. The officers shall be elected for a term of twelve months at the Annual General Meeting. If the office of President, Secretary, Treasurer or Tournament Coordinator, becomes vacant it shall be filled by the Executive Committee. For the remainder of the year. Any such partial term shall not count towards any limit as prescribed in rule 13. If a webmaster is not elected at an AGM, or the position becomes vacant, the Executive Committee shall appoint a Webmaster.
13. The President shall not hold office for more than two years consecutively. The office of President may not be combined with Secretary, Treasurer or Tournament Co-ordinator. There is no other restriction on one person holding multiple offices, provided there are at least three persons on the Executive Committee.
14. No person shall be eligible to hold office as a member of the Executive Committee unless they are a financial member or a life member of a club affiliated to the Association.
15. Nominations for all Executive positions, may be made by any affiliated club and shall be sent to the Secretary twenty-eight days before the Annual General Meeting. The Secretary shall issue to each affiliated club a list of nominations at least fourteen days before the meeting. Should there be insufficient nominations for any vacancy further nominations for that vacancy may be made and received at the meeting.

Representation

16. Each club may send up to two delegates to any general meeting.
17. No delegate shall act for more than one club.
